

Key REBOOT questions:

Questions to ask yourself or you and someone you love or care for to help you REBOOT your life in a way that can help draw you closer to God's presence:

- What will we resume and what will we let go of?
 - As we come out of a pandemic or other setbacks in life, what have we learned that might help us pivot and begin again?
- What will shape our priorities and inform our decisions?
 - What key things have affected our life?
- How can we live in more healthy and life-giving ways for us, and for those around us?
- How can we reset our expectations about our world and what matters most?
 - Our expectations can easily lead us away from Gods' will if we don't include God in prayerful conversation.
- How can we refocus on our relationship with God and seek God's guidance?
 - Seek out the Prayer help document found in the same place you found this Pdf.
- How has this pandemic shaped us to answer what is God calling us to become?
 - Sometimes it might be as simple as giving you more free time to pray and reflect on Gods' will. This one will take some deeper thinking!
